Irregularity of wealth distribution.

68. Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Referring to question No. 453, 25th February 1932, regarding unscientific irregularity of our wealth distribution, will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether their 'cannot' represents their unwillingness or inability in the matter;

(b) whether they are aware that there happen to be some civilised systems that have taken the bull by the horn and outraged the supposed immutability of Economic Laws causing greater public good thereby;

(c) whether they can interfere with the Laws of common sense?

Mr. U. Kandar Menon.—(a) No.

(b) No.

(c) It is a matter of opinion and more or less depends upon how one understands the expression, the Laws of common sense.

Evacuation of villages by peasantry.

69. Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—With reference to a question in one of the previous sittings, regarding the Steady Evacuation of our villages by the Ruined Peasantry, will the Government be pleased to state (1) whether they have made any attempt to collect the wanting statistics and even if they have not, (2) whether they intend to place the information on the table with such a long notice? (Question 606, Meenam of 1107).

Mr. U. Kandar Menon.—(1) No.

(2) No.

Effect of depression on Co-operative Credit Societies.

70. Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—With reference to item 25 in answer to question No. 394, will the Government be pleased to state whether they are aware that our Rural Co-operative Credit Societies, especially on the coastal regions like Azhikode are comparatively more affected by depression and that such societies are by experience found to be doing no palpable good for
